HISTORY

Like previous events in the series hosted in the last thirty years by Rome 2016, Bordeaux 2015, Limassol 2014, Sofia 2013, Malmö-Lund 2012, Berlin 2011, Prague 2010, Antalya 2009, and Krakow 2008, etc., the conference will review recent advances in experimental, theoretical, and applied studies in Colloid and Interface Science. Based on previous conferences it is expected that the participation will be between 600 and 700 scientists from all around the world.

IMPORTANT DEADLINES

Oral presentation submission	April 30, 2017
Poster presentation submission	May 30, 2017
Early registration	June 20, 2017

REGISTRATION

Early Registration before June 20, 2017

Participants: € 550 and PhD students: € 350

Normal Registration after June 20, 2017

Participants: € 600 and PhD students: € 375

The conference registration fee covers the admission to all conference sessions, welcome reception, coffee breaks, meals, and conference materials

CONFERENCE TOPICS

1. Self-assembly of Surfactants, Lipids, Proteins, Peptides and Polymers
2. Liquid Interfaces, Air-liquid Interfaces, Membranes, Films and Emulsions
3. Polymer Solutions, Gels, Liquid Crystals and Polyelectrolytes
4. Wetting and Superhydrophobic Surfaces
5. Nanoparticles and Nanostructured Materials
6. Inorganic Colloids and Upconverting Nanomaterials
7. Hydration and Ion Specific Effects
8. Theory and Simulation in Colloid and Thin Layer Systems
9. Advances in Methods of Imaging and Characterization of Colloidal Systems
10. Transport Phenomena in Colloidal Systems
11. Medical, Pharmaceutical and Industrial Applications of Colloids
12. Colloids out of Equilibrium and Active Matter
13. Special Session Dedicated to Colloids in Latin America

PLENARY SPEAKERS

Maria Jose Alonso, University of Santiago de Compostela, Spain

Michael Cates, University of Cambridge, UK

Jacob Klein, Weizmann Institute of Science, Israel

Katharina Landfester, Max Planck Institute for Polymers, Germany

Luis Liz Marzan, CIC BioMagune, Spain

Gareth McKinley, MIT, USA

CONTACTS

Chairpersons

Enrique Lopez-Cabarcos and Jorge Rubio-Retama, Complutense University of Madrid
